At seven hundred seventy-one square feet, The Astor is perfect for those getting straight to the point. Walk in your front door and hang your coat up with the bathroom directly to your left. Turn right, and you can start preparing food in your kitchen with a little island opening connecting to the living and dining room. Behind your island, you can find a closet housing your in-unit washer and dryer to keep your life convenient. Your front hall flows fabulously from your kitchen to your eleven by fourteen and a half foot living room, creating a comfortable open concept. On the other side of your living room wall is your twelve and a half by twelve and a half foot bedroom with a lavish walk-in closet.
