notes:

For those living with a friend, The Broadway is your choice! With nine hundred eighty-three square feet, there's enough space to spread out while still being small enough to keep clean. Walk through your front door and make your way down your diagonal hallway to the first bedroom measuring in at eleven by ten and a half feet. As you continue through the unit, you will find the bathroom on your right with the kitchen opening up to your eighteen and a half by the eleven-foot dining room. The second bedroom door is on the diagonal sizing up at thirteen and a half by eleven feet. As both bedrooms are on the opposite side of the apartment with the bathroom in the middle, this makes it easy to be able to socialize when you want to but also retreat and spend some time alone as necessary.
